

"World Hot Spots: What Google Earth and Geography Tell Us About War, Peace, and Politics."

Dole Institute of Politics
Thursday, September 20, 2007, 7:30 pm

Three leaders of geographic science and technology examine world conflicts from geographic perspectives. They spotlight how geography and its revolutionary technologies are changing the way countries wage war and make life and death decisions about war and peace.

Alec Murphy
Vice president of the American Geographical Society
Former president of the Association of American Geographers
Professor of geography at the University of Oregon.

Brian McClendon
Co-founder and
Director of Engineering
of Google Earth
KU grad who made Lawrence the
"Center of the Earth"

Jerry Dobson
President of the American Geographical Society
Former president of the University Consortium for Geographic Information Science
Professor of Geography at KU

Co-Sponsored by
The American Geographical Society
Founded 1851

